

SUNDAY

Take a moment to reflect and offer your day and this week to God

Confession

Most merciful God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, we confess that we have sinned in thought, word and deed.
We have not loved you with our whole heart.
We have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.
In your mercy, forgive what we have been,
help us to amend what we are, and direct what shall be;
that we may do justly, love mercy,
and walk humbly with you, our God. Amen

If we confess our sins to him, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all wickedness (1 John 1:9)

The Lord's prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name.
Your Kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours.
Now and for ever. Amen

Blessing

May the Lord bless you and protect you
May the Lord smile on you and be gracious to you
May the Lord show you his favour and give you his peace (Numbers 6:24-26)

TUESDAY

Confession

Almighty God, our heavenly Father

We have sinned against you and against our neighbour in thought, word and deed -
Through negligence, through weakness, through our own deliberate fault.

We are truly sorry and repent of all our sins.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, who died for us, forgive us all that is past

And grant that we may serve you in newness of life to the glory of your name. Amen

The LORD is compassionate and merciful, slow to get angry and filled with unfailing love.

He will not constantly accuse us, nor remain angry forever.

He does not punish us for all our sins; he does not deal harshly with us, as we deserve.

For his unfailing love toward those who fear him is as great as the height of the heavens above the earth.

He has removed our sins as far from us as the east is from the west. The LORD is like a father to his children. (Psalm 103:8-13)

WEDNESDAY

Confession

Take time to reflect on your week so far - pray your own prayer of confession to God and offer your day to Him.

So now there is no condemnation for those who belong to Christ Jesus, and because you belong to Him, the power of the life giving Spirit has freed you from the power of sin that leads to death. (Romans 8:1-2)

Thanksgiving

All praise to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly realms because we are united with Christ. Even before he made the world, God loved us and chose us in Christ to be holy and without fault in his eyes. God decided in advance to adopt us into his own family by bringing us to himself through Jesus Christ. This is what he wanted to do, and it gave him great pleasure. So we praise God for the glorious grace he has poured out on us who belong to his dear Son. He is so rich in kindness and grace that he purchased our freedom with the blood of his Son and forgave our sins. He has showered his kindness on us, along with all wisdom and understanding. (Ephesians 1:3-8)

Prayer focus for today: Community

Praying for those in authority:

I urge you, first of all, to pray for all people. Ask God to help them; intercede on their behalf, and give thanks for them. Pray this way for kings and all who are in authority so that we can live peaceful and quiet lives marked by godliness and dignity. This is good and pleases God our Saviour who wants everyone to be saved and to understand the truth. For there is only one God and one Mediator who can reconcile God and humanity—the man Christ Jesus gave his life to purchase freedom for us. (1 Timothy 2: 1-5)

Confession

At the end of another week, think back and bring to God those things that you feel you need to share with Him for forgiveness.

The LORD is compassionate and merciful, slow to get angry and filled with unfailing love. He will not constantly accuse us, nor remain angry forever.

Don't worry about anything; instead, pray about everything. Tell God what you need, and thank him for all he has done. Then you will experience God's peace, which exceeds anything we can understand. His peace will guard your hearts and minds as you live in Christ Jesus. (Philippians 4:6-7)
